The Egregious English

Thomas William Hodgson Crosland

This 1903 book is a tongue-in-cheek send-up of English people and subjects. Within the humor (or humour), the listener may be surprised by some diamond-hard observations. The listener is also alerted to some attitudes of a different time that would not be acceptable in today's polite discourse. Here writing as "Angus McNeil", a Scotsman, Crosland was a British author, poet, and journalist (1865-1924)
